

Juilliard

To Whom it May Concern,

It is a pleasure to write on behalf of the guitar virtuoso Cristiano Porqueddu.

Mr. Porqueddu has carved out a career for himself that has infinite potential. Besides being a top notch performing guitarist and musician, Mr. Porqueddu has the vision and fortitude to forge a new and substantial path by discovering, recording and performing great works that have been largely ignored by others. There are a few pianists that have forged similar career pathways, notably Marc Andre-Hamelin. I can confidently say that Cristiano Porqueddu is a unique voice in the wilderness of guitarists. Indeed, he will surly become a standard a reference point for guitarists of the future.

Sincerely,

Mark Delpriora
